

Client Case Study

Read Construction Ltd

About our client

Read Construction is a best practice construction company covering Mid to North Wales and North West England. The company supports a diverse range of public and private sector clients with projects across a variety of markets including commercial, educational, healthcare, heritage, industrial, residential, leisure and hotels, and zoological.

Sustainable development is at the heart of everything the company does, from investment in people through to the selection and use of recycled materials, embracing the three pillars of sustainability – people, planet, and prosperity. Implementing modern methods of construction and proactivity in the early adoption of new and innovative practices have also contributed to the company's success.

Read developed North Wales' first zero carbon office development and its passion for innovation and commitment to sharing best practice throughout the industry, resulted in the company receiving the coveted CEW Awards on two occasions by Constructing Excellence Wales.

The business strives for 100% client satisfaction, delivered through exceptional customer service.

What the client says about our services

Richard Heaton, Managing Director - Read Construction:

“The team at CBSL Accountants offers a breadth of ability way beyond what most people would expect from their accountancy practice.

Over the last four years, Managing Director Adrian Barker has acted outside his accountancy role to provide our business with real corporate expertise, including strategic and operational planning. It has been so valuable to have someone who is an independent pair of eyes looking at what we do, who has really got to know our business and is prepared to ask challenging questions too – then look for an answer with us. Challenging questions come from really understanding how a business ticks.

Because of the many clients they have experience of working with, they have accrued an in-depth knowledge of supporting businesses and overcoming challenges and this experience is invaluable.

The people I work with at CBSL Accountants – Adrian, Steve Hall and Louise Osselton are excellent and personable. The badge above their door says ‘accountants’, but they offer a business far more than number-crunching.”
